Papa is in, said Bee; but unluckily he is closeted with some one in the study. Perhaps you wont mind waiting a few minutes, Mr. Fairfax Mr. Fairfax has something to ask you, Bee, said Alf. To ask me cried Bee, laughing. Have you idle boys got him to ask for another holiday for you It was all Mr. Fairfax, said Eustace. Yes; he asked us quite out of his own head, said Archie. He wants us-- he said so, cried Alf. Now, didnt you he continued, going across to Mr. Fairfax, and laying a chubby hand on his knee. It is clearly another holiday that is wanted, said Bee. I think Mr. Fairfax much too benevolent towards you, boys, and I highly disapprove of your wasting so much time. But if it is only Mr. Fairfax who wishes it in this case, and you do...
