Bacon, of Pa., Benjamin Bown, of Ohio, Abby Kimber, of Pa., Alice Jackson, of Pa. Business committee. Wendell Phillips, James Miller McKim, Mary Grew, Edward M.Davis, Charles C. Burleigh, Thomas Whitson, Anne Warren Weston, Joseph A. Dugdale, Henry C. Wright. Opportunity being given, vocal prayer was offered, in a fervent spirit, by Henry Grew, of Philadelphia. Mr. Garrison, on taking the chair, made an eloquent and earnest address to the Society; but as the Reporter of the subsequent proceedings was not then present, only the following imperfect sketch of it can be given: In holding this twentieth anniversary, (Mr. G. said,) I must first congratulate such of you as participated in the formation of this Society - and, next, all those who, since that memorable event, have rallied under its standard - on the unquestionable progress and many signal triumphs of our cause, and also on the numerous cheering signs of the times. Our movement is not sectional or geographical, but world-wide in its principles, affecting all the hopes and interests of humanity, and indissolubly connected with the freedom of mankind. It does not relate to the color of the skin, but to the value of a man. It is not the antagonism of the North against the South, but of Liberty against Slavery. Our instrumentalities are the same now as at the beginning - the faithful and uncompromising utterance of the truth, and its application to the consciences and hearts of the people, without respect to persons. The spirit that actuates us is still a loving spirit, without...
